INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors of
Asia Art Archive in America, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Asia Art Archive in America, Inc. ("Organization", a not-for-profit organization) as of December 31, 2011, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as of December 31, 2011, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Note 1 - Organization

Asia Art Archive in America, Inc. (the "Organization"), incorporated in 2009 under the laws of the State of Delaware, operates as a non-profit organization and is authorized to do business in the State of New York. The Organization is exempt from Federal income taxes pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and may engage in all forms of charitable activity within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Organization's mission is to collect, preserve and make information on contemporary art from and of Asia easily accessible in order to facilitate understanding, research and writing in the field. It strives to be pro-active in instigating dialogue and critical thinking through a regular initiation of educational programs, and hopes to raise awareness of and support for the activities of Asia Art Archive in Hong Kong ("AAAHK".)

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

b) Financial Statement Presentation

Resources are classified for accounting and reporting purposes according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted. All of the Organizations' net assets were unrestricted as of December 31, 2011.

Unrestricted net assets do not have donor-imposed stipulations and are available for use at the discretion of the Board.

Temporarily restricted net assets may be utilized only in accordance with the purpose or time restrictions of the donor. Donor-imposed restrictions may be fulfilled either by Board action or passage of time. There were no temporarily restricted net assets as of December 31, 2011.

Permanently restricted net assets are subject to donor restriction and ordinarily do not permit invasion of original principal. There were no permanently restricted net assets as of December 31, 2011.

c) Revenue Recognition

Contributions received are recorded as increases in unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions.

d) Donated Services

Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Organization

The President and members of the Board of Directors volunteer their time and incur expenses servicing the Organization; no provision is made in the financial statements for either the services or the expenses.

e) Website

The Organization uses its website to communicate and make accessible its programs and to promote other public events relating to contemporary art from Asia

f) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

g) Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and is a public charity, which allows donors the maximum charitable deduction

Management has analyzed the Organization's tax filing positions and concluded it has no uncertain tax positions. Accordingly, an accrual of liability related to uncertain tax positions is deemed not necessary.

The Organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

The Forms 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, of the Organization for the years ending 2009 and 2010 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

h) Events Occurring After Reporting Date

Management has evaluated subsequent events between January 1, 2012 and September 18, 2012, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that there are no subsequent events that require adjustment to or disclosure in the financial statements.

Note 3 - Donated Asset

The Organization does not capitalize donated works of art, books and publications, or recognize them as revenues or gains.

During 2011, a piece of artwork was contributed to the Organization which was recognized as non-cash revenue at a fair value of $260,000. The donated artwork was subsequently granted, in 2011, to Asia Art Archive in Hong Kong for which $260,000 was recorded and included in grant expenses.

Note 4 - Description of Program and Supporting Services

The following programs and supporting services are included in the accompanying financial statements.

Programs

The Organization makes grants to recipients which conduct programs and projects that are consistent with the mission of the Organization. All grants are reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors.

The Organization coordinates an ongoing program of presentations, conversations and interviews with artists, curators, critics and scholars about contemporary art from Asia. The Organization also organizes screenings for and presentations about an Asia Art Archive-produced documentary film which in 2011 took place at universities and a museum in the United States and Canada. Transcripts of the talks, presentations and interviews are made accessible online to broad audiences through the Organization's website.

Management and General

Management and general expenses include the functions necessary to maintain an adequate working environment; provide coordination and articulation of the Organization's program strategy through the President; secure proper administrative functioning of the Board of Directors; maintain competent legal services for the program administration of the Organization; and manage the financial and budgetary responsibilities of the Organization.

Note 5 - Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities

Directly identifiable expenses are charged to programs and supporting services. Certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited on the basis of periodic time and expense studies. Management and general expenses include those expenses that are not directly identifiable with any other specific function but provide for the overall support and direction of the Organization

Note 6 - Concentrations

During 2011, approximately 72% of cash contributions were received from a member of the Board.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

The Board of Directors
Asia Art Archive in America, Inc.

We have audited the financial statements of the Asia Art Archive in America, Inc ("Organization", a not-for-profit organization) as of December 31, 2011, and our report thereon dated September 18, 2012, which expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements, appears on page 1. Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information on the schedule of functional expenses for the year ended December 31, 2011 on page 10 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.
